

‘Cross-Organizational Value Creation’

2014 Science-to-Business Marketing Conference

CALL FOR PAPERS, PRESENTATIONS AND POSTERS; CALL FOR PROPOSALS FOR LEADING WORKSHOPS OR ORGANIZING TRACKS

The 2014 Science to Business Marketing Conference will be an international collaboration and discussion forum for practitioners and researchers on the topic of Cross-Organizational Value Creation.

We are now calling for abstracts for papers and presentations, proposals for workshops and tracks, and posters on the themes of the conference. We would like to encourage you to submit abstracts of conceptually or empirically focused proposals.

Abstracts will be reviewed by an international scientific committee with a double blind review process.

PAPER AND PRESENTATION ABSTRACTS

The title of the abstract should be no longer than 12 words, and the abstract itself must not exceed 250 words. The abstract should accurately reflect what is being proposed and indicate clearly the content of the final paper / presentation.

The abstract should include:

- Statement of the issue/problem, and the relevant background.
- Brief description of how the issue/problem will be approached, or the workshop methodology.
- Summary findings and results.
- Implications, contribution or relevance of the proposal.
- Conclusion and recommendations.

Accepted abstracts will be invited to be developed into papers and included in the conference proceedings of the Cross-Organizational Value Creation Conference.

IMPORTANT DATES

January 17, 2014: Submission deadline for abstracts.

January 17 – February 10, 2014: Abstracts review process.

February 10, 2014: Acceptance notification to successful authors, and instructions sent out for writing the full paper.
